Cookie Policy

We use cookies at AEC to improve our service for you. Cookies are small pieces of information sent by a web server to a web browser which allows the server to uniquely identify the browser on each page. Some cookies we use are essential for some services to work, others are used to collect information of the use of the website (statistics) so that we can make the site more convenient and useful for you. Some cookies are temporary and will disappear when you close your browser, others are persistent and will stay on your computer for some time.

Some of the cookies are strictly necessary for the functionality of the site while others are used to enhance the performance and your user experience.

Functional cookies are used to:

- Remember your log-in details
- Make sure you are secure when logged-in
- Make sure that the web site looks consistent
- Offer live chat support

Performance cookies are used to:

- Enhance the performance of the web site
- Enhance the user experience

Targeting cookies are used to:

- Allow you to share and like
- Send information to other websites to customise their advertisement

Examples of use:

The cookies are used to improve services for you through, for example:

- Enabling the functionality of some specific services like payment which will not work without those cookies
- Enabling a service to recognise your device so you don't have to give the same information several times during one task
- Recognising that you may already have given a username and password when logged in to so you don't need to do it for every web page requested

If you choose not to use cookies during your visit, you should be aware that certain functions and pages will not work as expected.

If you want to delete any cookies already on your computer, please refer to your browser vendor's instructions by clicking "Help" in your browser menu.
